Your first, mandatory step for controlling these weird thoughts is to accept them. You need to allow yourself to have those thoughts without worrying about what they mean, if you can control them, or what they say about you. Accept that your thoughts are caused by your anxiety, and they don't mean anything.

The explanations it offers for how to think about weird things are more or less obvious in most cases. For example, I did not need to be told I should be skeptical of a miracle cure until there was good, scientific evidence in its favor.
