Mr. and Miss. Anonymous is the tale of two donors - college students who make those extra few bucks they need to pay tuition by donating sperm and eggs to a fertility clinic near the Berkley campus. They both eschew the offered counseling, and find themselves suffering from terrible regrets twenty years later, when they run into one another at an airport while heading back to Berkley Okay, so I didn't love this book.

Mr.&Miss Anonymous has a great beginning.It got my immediate attention. The characters were easy to like and the build up of suspense was great until it got a bit hokey with the spirits of the dead children. The book could easily have been developed without all the spirits. That said it is a "grabber" and as always Fern Michaels does know how ...
