Sometimes the most obvious answer is the correct one. The King James Version renders Proverbs 18:24 this way, "A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." A person must show themselves to be friendly toward others in order to make friends. Hmmm. What a simple concept. Think about it.

The author of this book wants to use these questions and answers to help fulfill proverbs 1:1-7. This book is meant for discussion not arguments. The Proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel; To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding; to receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgement, and equity; To give subtlety to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion. A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of Knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and instruction. Ron Ray was born in South Dakota. He has been a Christian since 1972.
