Lisa Jewell is a really good writer and I was surprised when I realised I hadn't read her first book, the cover is simple but perfect for the story behind it. Jem is the centre of attention in this book and I love that as she's such a lovely character she's someone you want as a friend as she's a good listener and counts everyone she has in her ...

Ralph's Party by Lisa Jewell - FictionDB

Ralph's Party is one party you'll thoroughly enjoy and one which you will stay to the end.I also loved Thirtynothing (see other review). Lisa Jewell is a product of this new wave of British writers (like Nick Hornby and Isabel Wolff) who know how to tell a story and how to create colorful yet believable characters.I can hardly wait for Ms. Jewell's next book "One Hit Wonder".

Ralph's party book by Lisa Jewell

This is one of Lisa Jewell ' s first books & it ' s easy to see how she ' s grown as a writer since this, it ' s unrecognisable to her more recent work. It ' s an easy light read & she's in entertaining form following up on the characters of Ralph's Party. It follows a fairly predictable pattern but does have a few surprises, twists & turns.

Another great book from Lisa Jewell, a very moving, well written and emotive story as some of the beloved characters from the classic bestseller Ralph's Party struggle 12 years on with the realities of family life.
