Unexpected Father The pretty redhead Seth Halloway pulls from a derailed train has surprising news for him. The children she's accompanied to Cowboy Creek aren't hers--they're his, thanks to the last wishes of a late friend. Busy rancher Seth must suddenly cope with three rambunctious boys and try to ignore his growing feelings for independent Marigold Brewster. Marigold hopes to start over as the town's new schoolteacher. She'll choose her own path, and stay aloof from the adorable Radner boys and their guardian. But the man who rescued her from a wrecked railcar might just be the one to save her from loneliness if she dares to let him in.

Unexpected Father

The Rancher's Inherited Family Trevor McCall doesn't want to be a rancher, or settle down and become a family man. Now, however, he's forced to not only take over his late parents' ranch, but also unexpectedly raise his cousin's four-year-old daughter, Jade. Sure, he can run the place for the year-long stipulation specified in his parents' will, but take care of a kid? No way. Nothing in his life has prepared him to be the father of a four-year-old girl. Complicating matters, Lacey Cameron, his sweet and pretty housekeeper, is leaving to open up her own B&B. Lacey has always lived at the McCall ranch--she can't leave now when he needs her most. Desperate, Trevor makes a deal with her: Stay and help him with little Jade and in return he'll help her fix up the B&B. Lacey agrees, and as the two of them work together, Trevor quickly realizes the girl he's known all his life has grown into a beautiful woman, one who, to his shock, manages to find a crack in his hardened heart. The Cowboy's Rescue Single mom Heather Browning will do anything to get away from her controlling ex-husband--including buying a rundown strawberry farm in Montana. Maybe the locals are right, maybe she is crazy. Still, she'll do anything to keep her twin son and daughter safe and happy and keep her ex out of the picture. When her only horse comes up lame, she calls local veterinarian Randy McCall. The sexy cowboy takes one look at her farm and dilapidated house and offers his help, but Heather is quick to say no. She doesn't need anyone's help--no matter how gorgeous and tempting Randy is. But after hurting her ankle and discovering her roof is riddled with leaks, she reluctantly agrees to temporarily move herself and the twins to the McCall Ranch. If Heather wanted a charming, sexy, man--which she does not--Randy would be perfect. Good thing she only wants to be friends. Even as Randy tells himself over and over that he's not a relationship kind of guy, his stubborn heart doesn't believe it. Knowing Heather has already been hurt by a man, he decides to stop things before they get out of hand. But can he stop himself from falling in love? The Cowboy's Pregnant Sweetheart Karen Peterson has always known the rodeo was Carson McCall's first and only love. She got proof of that when they were eighteen and he left her brokenhearted to join the rodeo circuit. She never got the chance to tell him she was pregnant and never told him she lost the baby. Nine years later, he's back home at the McCall Ranch nursing injuries from a bull-riding accident. When she sees him, she has a wonderful idea. Her sister's autistic son, Devon, wants to learn to ride, and Carson is the perfect man to teach him. But Carson turns her down flat. Until the consequences of a barroom brawl require community service—teaching Devon to ride. Though Carson is the only cowboy she'll ever love, she can shield her feelings for the sake of her nephew, even if Carson still makes her heart feel like it's on a bucking bronco. Carson is completely at odds. All he wants to do is heal and return to his life, despite his doctors telling him he'll never ride at the same level again. He hates that he's not the man he was, hates that everyone pities the washed-up has-been rodeo star. The only bright part of his day is the hour he spends with Devon and Karen. Carson never forgot her, never really got over her. She's still the girl he loved when he was just a kid, only she's even more beautiful now. As they spend time together, it's hard to resist their deep attraction, and in the end, they give in to it. Still, the lure of his first love—the rodeo—is strong, and when his doctor clears him to join the circuit, he's happy—just not as happy as he'd thought he'd be. And when he learns Karen is pregnant, he's torn. Could it be that the rodeo isn't the only thing that matters anymore?

New York Times bestselling author Diana Palmer revisits a classic tale of hot days and nights on the Texas range! Cort Brannt, heir to the Skylance Ranch empire, has a constant flow of women galloping into his life. Still, the handsome lone wolf sends them on their way just as quickly, refusing to let anyone lasso his heart. But everything changes when a pretty, vivacious neighbor named Maddie Lane, catches his eye. Has the most eligible bachelor in Branntville met his match after all?

Bounty hunting was just a job for Gabe Taggart—one he needed to fund his sister's education. But now Irene has finished school, and Gabe is ready to settle down, find a husband for Irene and—best of all—set aside his past. His adventuring days are over—until his intervention in a train robbery leaves him injured, under Elizabeth Hart's care. Despite his plans for a quiet life, antagonizing his feisty caretaker is the most fun Gabe's ever had. Elizabeth provokes him, too, with her strong mind, kind heart and high principles. Gabe hopes to win her love, but will his dark history bar him from marriage to the preacher's daughter?

When a young woman inherits a rundown mansion, the last thing she expects to find is the key to her heart... Abby Foster is a fish out of water in the Maine coastal town of Jewell Cove. The crumbling Foster estate, left to her by a relative she never even knew, has everyone's eyes on her—an eerie reminder of the long-buried family secrets that have haunted her...forever. Single, stunning, and sometimes too strong-willed for her own good, Abby's plan is to sell the house and hightail it back to Nova Scotia. But another part of her is intrigued by the idea of starting over somewhere new—and finally learning the truth about her heritage. THE HOUSE ON BLACKBERRY HILL Enter Tom Arseneault. The best contractor in Jewell Cove, Tom is determined to restore the beauty and prestige of the Foster mansion—and maybe even work his charms on its beautiful new heir. The attraction between him and Abby is undeniable, and the more time Tom spends on the house the more he wants to be in it with her. But Abby's not sure she can trust him—or anyone in Jewell Cove who seems to know more about her family history than she does. Home: Is it really where the heart is after all? "Oh, my silly heart be still. This is a wonderful romance, packed with family drama, a sexy hero, an incredible old house. You'll fall in love from the very first page."—Debbie Macomber, #1 New York Times bestselling author
